NOLAN'S NOTION.

He Vigorously Superintends His Daughter's Love Affairs.

The Extraordinary Divorce Case That is Now on the Carpet in Albany and in Which an Ex-Congressman is the Most Conspicuous Figure—Singular Treatment of an Eighteen-Year-Old Daughter.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 26.—That novel action for divorce which was commenced in the Circuit Court here the other day, is still attracting much attention. About the middle of November, 1882, the city was startled by gossip that the then Congressman and Mayor Mitchell N. Nolan had confined his eldest daughter, Maria T. Carroll, aged about eighteen, in a room in his residence because she had clandestinely married a young man named J. Ballard Carroll, a few days before, against her parents' wishes. Mr. Nolan, who has since that time been deposed from the mayoralty to give place to Dr. John Swinburne, who contested his election, is a wealthy brewer. Young Carroll is the son of a well-to-do coal merchant. Both families are Catholics. It transpires that the young people grew up together as children and formed an attachment which the Nolans sought to sever by sending their daughter to a convent, on account of young Carroll's alleged profligate habits. On Miss Nolan's return from the convent she secretly met Carroll, and on the evening of November 3, 1882, they repaired to the Cathedral with one of the young man's associates, and were married by the priest in attendance. The young bride returned immediately to her father's house. Young Carroll was not permitted to see his wife. His friends claimed that she was detained at her father's house by duress, while her family contended that she had willingly separated from her husband, because of his licentiousness, which had been disclosed to her by detectives who had shadowed Carroll to various reputable haunts. It is admitted that two detectives have been employed to watch Carroll ever since his marriage. A suit was begun months ago by Nolan as guardian of his daughter to procure an absolute divorce. An effort was made to have the case referred, owing to the scandal that the plaintiff's counsel, on the opening, disclosed that it was proposed to prove that Carroll for many years before and since his marriage had led a dissolute life.

BUFFALO FACTIONS.

Fight Over the Mayoralty at the Home of Cleveland.

BUFFALO, Oct. 26.—The fight in the local Democratic ranks is becoming very bitter. Both Scoville and Manning, the rival candidates for Mayor, have worked early and late since last Wednesday's split, and both feel confident of success. Manning at present occupies the executive chair and wishes to retain it another term.

Scoville is known as the man with a "bar." He appears to be the choice of the better class of Democrats, and his election over Manning seems certain. To-day the Scoville adherents had a convention and nominated their candidate by acclamation. He made a speech, saying that when a Mayor used his office for personal ends he became a vulgar politician. He claimed that, if elected, he would be Mayor for the people, and not for any faction. Much excitement prevails and lively times are anticipated between now and election day.

Ben's Only Hope.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Registration for the State election is the largest ever known in this city. It foots up over 65,000. Last year's total was 55,597, which was exceeded only by that of 1880, when, being a presidential year, it footed up 58,626, and that is exceeded by fully 6,000 this year. Of course a large portion of the new voters in Boston are of the class that support Butler, and on this fact his managers base their hopes of success, as they admit that the changes from last year's vote are largely against him.

The Favorite Wins.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—A match race between the crack sloop Gracie and Fannie, twenty miles to windward and return, was sailed yesterday and resulted in a victory for the Fannie. The time was 7 hours, 2 minutes, 57 seconds, and the Gracie was 4 minutes 53 seconds behind. The corrected time gives the victory to Fannie by 8 minutes, 18 seconds.

General MacIver Explains.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—General MacIver, the projector of the New Guinea exploration and colonization company has written a reply to Lord Derby asking an interview in order to explain the purpose of his enterprise. He says the expedition is perfectly peaceful and has for its object the establishment of trading relations with the natives and colonists solely.

Two Widows on the War Path.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—A contest is threatened over the estate of the late General A. Funk, who died last week, two ladies having appeared before the Surrogate, each claiming to be the only lawful widow of the deceased, and each demanding letters of administration upon his estate.

Coleridge's Farewell.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—A reception was given Lord Chief Justice Coleridge last night at the Union League. About 1,000 members were present. Lord Coleridge closed his farewell to the club and the country by quoting Henry Taylor's words: "Enough, enough. Full hearts, few words."

BRUTAL OUTRAGE.

Fleishish Murder of an Inoffensive Colored Man.

WINSTON, N. C., Oct. 26.—Anderson Babson, or McConnell, a negro employed at Babsonstown, a few miles from this place, is the victim of the latest murder. He was an orderly negro, well esteemed, and was attempting to quiet a noisy crowd of negroes. He was set upon by a regular mob, armed with sticks, stones and razors, etc. They beat him terribly, one of the mob throwing a kerosene lamp against his head with such force as to break the skull. The white people soon gathered in numbers and the negro mob fled, leaving its victim lying upon the ground. It was found that he was deeply stabbed under the eye; that the skull was broken; that he was stabbed in the chest, and that there was a deep wound in his throat. A tobacco knife, sharp and bloody, also a heavy bludgeon and the fragments of the lamp were found. The outrage occurred Friday night, and Saturday morning McConnell died. Only one of the murderers was captured—a negro by the name of Watkins. The others have fled to Orange county, it is thought. Watkins is in jail, and the Deputy Sheriffs have gone to Orange to hunt the other murderers.

POSTOFFICE STATISTICS.

The Money Orders and the New Postal Rates.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 26.—The annual report of Dr. McDonald, Superintendent of the Money Order Bureau for the year ended June 30, 1883, shows that there were 8,807,556 orders issued during the year from the 5,927 money order offices of the country. The total amount of domestic money orders issued was $117,344,281, and of international orders $7,717,832. The gross revenues from domestic and international money orders amounted to $4,116.19, and the net revenue, after deducting expenses paid from appropriations amounted to $159,104. The postal note, Superintendent McDonald reports, has been quite extensively employed by the public since the inception of the system. At the New York postoffice, from September 3 to October 20th, of the total number of payments the postal note comprised about thirty-nine and the money order about sixty-one per cent. The amount of the postal notes paid was $103,854, averaging $1.86 and of money orders $4,136,493.

STAR ROUTE AGAIN.

The Old Worry Comes to the Surface Again in a New Form.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The first step relative to the celebrated star route troubles was brought to light in the Supreme Court Chambers before Judge Barrett in an action brought by John A. Walsh against Thomas J. Brady, of Star route fame. The matter came before the court upon a motion to vacate an order which had been granted for the examination of Brady before trial. The action is based upon a claim of about $42,000. After hearing arguments of counsel, Judge Barrett vacated the order. In connection with this suit the order had also been obtained to examine Senator Wm. F. Kellogg as a witness, so that his deposition could be used upon the trial. Mr. Reed also moved that this order should be vacated and made the point that there was nothing in the affidavit to show what was the object of the examination, and that no complaint had been filed. Judge Barrett examined the affidavit and replied, "you are right about that," and thereupon vacated the order.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

The New York Elevated Railway's Very Badly Hit.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—An important decision against the Elevated Railway companies has been reached in the Supreme Court in the suit of Dr. F. Taylor against the companies for damages to his property by the erection of the elevated road structure. He recovered a verdict for $20,000. The Judge said that the defendants were both wrong-doers and trespassers in running trains before they had taken and paid for the plaintiff's easement of light, air, and access to the streets, and that every train they so run is a new and continuing trespass, rendering them liable in damages to any one who can prove any injury by such running.

Chicago's Big Business Failure.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—The failure of Eddy, Harvey & Carter, hats, caps and furs' has caused a profound sensation in the trade throughout the West. Their assignment is largely the result of the continued depreciation in the value of furs during the past three years, and is partly due to the change of fashion from their stock on hand. Their liabilities are estimated at not less than $250,000. Their creditors are all New York parties. Their assets are unknown as yet. John G. Shortall, the assignee, is a Chicago capitalist who made a large fortune in real estate after the great fire of 1871.

Inspecting an Inspector.

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 26.—Post Office Inspector, General Edgerton, of St. Louis, has investigated the affairs of Inspector P. Foster, of this city, and has evidence showing Foster's course during the past five years to have been highly criminal, involving the falsification of vouchers for many thousand dollars, besides various other corrupt practices. General Edgerton is now en route to Washington to report the case.

The Largest Sailing Vessel Ever Built.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 26.—The Lord Wolsey, the largest sailing vessel ever built and the pioneer of the new line of ships and steamers plying between Belfast, Ireland, and Philadelphia, arrived in her birth at the Willow street wharf Wednesday evening.

UTAH'S PIG STYLE.

The Commission Whitewashes the Saints.

A Report Which is at Variance With Many Other and Reliable Reports—The Utah Commission Makes a Semi-Defense of the Mormon Gang of Outlaws.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The Utah Commission is here preparing its report to the President, and, while the Commission do not give any particulars as to what they will recommend, they, in a general way, claim that although the Edmund's bill has not accomplished all that was hoped, it has accomplished something. Commissioner Carl, in says that polygamy is decreasing and that four fifths of the male Mormons never have been in polygamy. About one thousand officials of all kinds have been elected under supervision of the Commissioner, and, while nearly all of them are Mormons, not one is or has been in polygamy. He has no very strong hopes, however, that the monogamous Mormon Legislature recently elected will enact any laws hostile to plural marriages. Mr. Carleton found no evidence of disloyalty to the Government, except in so far as the Mormons were determined to obey what they said was the voice of God, rather than the commands of men. He did not believe that martial law would avail, as he was certain that under no possible circumstances would the Mormons take up arms against the Government. Mr. Carleton thought the opening of the railway and the death of Brigham Young had weakened the polygamous feature of Mormonism, and, though he did not entertain expectations of its immediate disappearance, he did not favor a resort to any measures foreign to our system of government and ideas of civilization.

JOHN G'S SUIT.

Kilbourn Still After Him to the Tune of $500,000.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The Attorney General has requested Shellbarger and Wilson to assist the District Attorney in the defense of John G. Thompson, Sergeant-at-Arms, in the trial of the case of Kilbourn against Thompson. The House made no provision for the defense of its own officer, against whom, on account of official acts as Sergeant-at-Arms in imprisoning Kilbourn, a verdict of $100,000 has been found in this District. The verdict was set aside by the Court on the ground that it was excessive, and Mr. Kilbourn has brought a new suit, retained eminent counsel and claims $500,000 damages.

A STATESMAN SALOONIST.

Ex-Congressman Murch as a Business Rival of Sullivan.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Ex-Congressman Thompson H. Murch, of Maine, who preferred the charges against Supervising Architect Hill, some time ago, which were the subject of the recent investigation by a Treasury Commission, has applied to the Police Commissioners of Boston for a license to open a saloon at No. 25 Essex street, in the immediate vicinity of champion Sullivan's gorgeous bar. The place is now being fitted up and it is said that the late Greenback Congressman will expend some $8,000 on the shop before he opens up.

The Sculling Frauds.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Mr. Wm. Spellman, accompanied by the well known Portland sculler, Peter H. Conley, left last evening for Portland after arranging for the building of a new scull. Before leaving, to a reporter, Mr. Spellman expressed surprise that Ross should again state that he is prepared to row Conley, or has closed a match, as was stated by telegraph from Pittsburg. When at Portland on his way to St. John two weeks ago Ross said he would not row again this season. However, Conley will accept the proposition made by Ross to row a five-mile turning race for $500 or $1,000 a side on water mutually satisfactory, the race to take place within a reasonable time and within a reasonable distance of Portland and Pittsburg.

Newspapers and the Mail.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 26.—Judge Freeman, Attorney General for Postoffice Department, has prepared an order requiring newspaper publishers to number the pages of their supplement in regular order with the pages of regular issue. The postal authorities say they do not expect to make any recommendation to Congress as to the rates of postage on transient newspapers.

A Wonderful Escape.

WATERBURY, Conn., Oct. 26.—In raising the spire of the new Trinity Church at this place yesterday, a guy slipped and John Vogel, who was at its top, was thrown off, falling seventy-five feet. He struck three times, glancing from one roof to another at a different angle, thence to the ground, where he picked himself up and walked off uninjured.

The Everett House Suicide.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The body of Frederick B. Burrhus, who committed suicide at the Everett House yesterday, was removed today to Sing Sing, N. Y., for burial by the son of the deceased, who arrived early this morning from Washington, D. C.

The Pope and a Dead Man.

ROME, Oct. 26.—It is rumored that His Holiness Pope Leo XIII has decided to issue an interdict proclaiming the Pantheon a pagan temple in case the Italian Government should erect a monument therein to the late King Victor Emmanuel.

STORM WAIFS.

Tidings of Death and Wreck From the Sea.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 26.—A large fishing vessel, the F. B. Tower, of Boston, was driven into the fish weirs at the western part of the harbor yesterday. The only persons aboard were an old man and a boy, the latter thirteen years old. The old man reports the loss of the Captain and eight of the crew. The Captain, with his men, was out with their seines when the storm overtook them and the schooner was driven on shore. Reports say that a large white boat came through the surf at 1 o'clock. She apparently belonged to some steamer. On one of her seats was lettered "Dalton," and a life preserver was found in her. Another body washed ashore in the morning and is supposed to be from the Schooner Helen Crosby, of Gloucester, the crew of which was lost in Saturday night's gale.

LEWIS, Del., Oct. 26.—The condition of affairs in this harbor and along the beach remains about the same as on Wednesday. The Schooner Vesta is alongside of the railroad pier and is slightly damaged. She is not strained at all. The Vesta is coal laden and will proceed to her destination. The Schooner Brigand, reported as lying high up, will be got off as soon as the weather moderates. The sailor that was lost overboard from off the brig during the gale is supposed to have been drowned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The steamer "Monkseaton," which has just arrived here from Havana, reports that on Wednesday she fell in with the Schooner Norman, bound for Humacao, West India, with loss of main, mizzen-mast and jibboom. The Norman asked to be taken in tow. This Captain Weightman declined to do, but was willing to take off the crew. The Norman left Portland on the 5th inst with a cargo of lumber and coopers.

THE PRINTERS' STRIKE.

Decided Victory For the Typographic Union in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Out of the 1,800 compositors employed in the job printing and weekly newspaper offices who struck at noon yesterday by order of the Typographical Union No. 6 only about 150 were not at work this morning. All of the other men had returned to work yesterday afternoon and this morning at the terms demanded by the Union. The terms are a uniform scale of prices forty cents a thousand ems on weekly newspapers and from thirty-seven to forty cents, book and job work, with $18 as lowest week wages. In all the shops that the men returned to work they did so with the understanding that the non-Union men employed in them should join the Union, and the result is that 300 new names have been added to the roll. It is expected that the remainder of the strikers will all be at work on Monday.

HORRIBLE SUICIDE.

A Young Man Deliberately Plunges Into a Fiery Furnace.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 26.—At Kent, Portage county, yesterday, a young man named Joseph Spiehl, a native of Jamestown, Pa., committed suicide by leaping into a red-hot furnace in the glass works of Day, Williams & Co. He was watching the workmen fill the retort and suddenly told them to get out of the way. He threw away his hat and jumped into the fiery furnace. His death must have been instantaneous. His body was removed with an iron rake, pieces of flesh sticking to the coals. Promptly as this was done, it was not quick enough to prevent a great part of the flesh and bones being consumed. The head, arms and limbs were almost incinerated, the flesh being so burned from the trunk that the vital organs, the lungs, the heart and the liver, were exposed, as were the intestines.

THE FAT BRIDE.

Death at Baltimore of the Celebrated Detroit Fat Woman.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 26.—Mrs. David Moses, the fat bride weighing 517 pounds, on exhibition here, and recently married in New York, was found dead in bed this morning. She had been ill for the past two weeks and had not been on exhibition since last Thursday. She was born in Detroit in November, 1866, and has been before the public about one year. She gained sixty-seven pounds in the past seven months, and rapid increase in fat around her heart is supposed to have caused her death. She was to have appeared in Philadelphia next Monday at a museum whose curiosity hall is in the fourth story of the building. As she could not walk up three flights of stairs, the proprietors were putting up a derrick to hoist her up with.

Death of a Centenarian.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 26.—The Corner held an inquest to-day over the body of Mrs. Margaret Maloy, who died while seated in a chair. The deceased was 102 years of age and was living with her son and daughter, who were both single and both over seventy years of age. Mrs. Maloy was born in Ireland in 1781, and enjoyed good health until a few days before her death.

Burglary and Murder.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 26.—John Murphy, proprietor of a store and saloon at Wallace, twenty miles west of here, was found in the early morning shot in three places, and dead. His safe-door was open and $4,000 stolen. Suspicion falls on a man named Davis, who escaped from jail Monday and who had a grudge against Murphy.

Another Switchmen's Strike.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 26.—The switchmen in the yards of the Wash, Hannibal & St. Joseph, and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Roads struck yesterday afternoon and the others are rapidly joining their ranks. The officials firmly refuse to grant the advance demanded, and the outlook is dubious.

THE Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in session at Stanford, have voted to permanently locate future meetings of the Grand Lodge in Louisville.

THE Methodists of Indiana have agreed to raise the amount sufficient to procure r. W. C. DePauw's donation of $1,000,000 to Asbury College. The name of the university will be changed to DePauw.

IN the year 1882 only 15 1/2 per cent. of the total imports and exports of the United States were carried in American vessels. For the fiscal year, which ended June 30, 1883, the proportion was 16.28 per cent.

IF the Sandusky Register figures it rightly, the last political campaign in Ohio cost the managers, including State and county committees, second amendments, and liquor men, more than half a million dollars.

THE monument over the grave of Thomas Jefferson at Monticello, Virginia, provided for by joint resolution of Congress, has been completed. It costs $8,352 out of an apportionment of $10,000, leaving a balance of $1,648.

JUSTICE HARLAN, of the Supreme Court, says that the resolutions of the Frankfort meeting of February, 1880, relating to veto of the Freedmen's bureau bill, which he signed, were written by Col. Samuel B. Churchill, of Louisville.

Though numerous cases may operate to turn the hair gray, all that is needed to restore the natural color is Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer. For more than twenty years its sales have been enormous, but we have yet to hear of its first failure.

THE growth of Texas is marvelous. The increase in her taxable property last year was $130,000,000. New counties to the number of eight were organized, giving 200 in all. Besides this, there is a territory twice as large as the State of Georgia not yet divided into counties.

THE Lexington Transcript says: Senator Williams denies that he used any money in the election of Williams legislators. Some of the people in a Fayette county precinct, in which considerable whisky was used at the primary, will probably reserve the right to draw their own conclusions concerning this.

THE Mt. Sterling Sentinel says: Col. R. J. Samuels, of Hazel Green, was here Monday en route to Franklin, Pa., to meet the directors of the Cincinnati and South Eastern Railroad Company, and it is proposed to put this road on its feet again. He had samples of coals from Breathitt county to show to capitalists and he is shipping half a ton of coal to Pennsylvania where a test of its quality will be made. The C. and S. E. will pass through Hazel Green to Breathitt and on to Virginia.

A MEETING was held in Washington, D. C., to consider the decision of the Supreme Court that the Civil Rights bill is unconstitutional. White and colored men of prominence were present. Prof. J. M. Gregory (colored) presided, and Fred Douglass, Colonel Robert Ingersoll, Judge Shellabarger and Rev. Dr. Rankin made speeches. Fred Douglass declared that the colored people had been wounded in the house of their friends, and that the wound was too deep, too fresh and too painful for the measured speech of ordinary occasions. He declared the decision had inflicted a heavy calamity upon 7,000,000 of colored people in this country, and had left them naked and defenseless against the action of a malignant, vulgar and pitiless prejudice, and that it presented the United States before the world as a nation utterly destitute of power to protect the rights of its own citizens.

The Press.

The Truth gives the following as a speech by a prominent New York journalist, at a recent press dinner, in reply to the toast, "The Independent Press!" "There is no such thing in America as an independent press unless it is out in country towns. You are all slaves. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you that dares to express an honest opinion. If you expressed it, you would know beforehand that it would never appear in print. I am paid $150 for keeping honest opinions out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar salaries for doing similar things. If I should allow honest opinions to be printed in one issue of my paper, before twenty-four hours my occupation would be gone. The man who would be so foolish as to write honest opinions would be out on the street hunting for another job. The business of a New York journalist is to distort truth, to lie outright, to pervert, to vilify, to fawn at the feet of Mammon and to dilly bread or for what is about the same, his salary. You know this and I know it, and what foolery to be toasting an 'Independent Press.' We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are jumping-jacks. They pull the string and we dance. Our time, our talents, our lives, our possibilities, are all the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes."

That man was evidently in a sullen humor and took an exaggerated view of the case. But it is entirely true that any paid editor would be discharged from our leading California journals if he published a square, honest opinion on the drunkenness and pauperism caused by the wine interest here, told the truth about the dram-shops, or if he was so honest as to publish twenty lines of a speech by Miss Willard, after a full column devoted to the minute details of a Sunday cock-fight.

Gastronomy.

A newly installed imported cook at the Hoffman House is paid the large salary of $3,500 a year.

At some fashionable dinner parties nowadays the game comes to the table with the natural feathers on.

Macaroni dinners, the food cooked in several different ways, are increasing in fashionable popularity.

Bread for dinner parties, says an exchange, is now cut into small squares relieved of the crust and cut as thin as possible.

It is said to task the ability of a genuine gastronome to detect the difference between imported and native peas as now canned.

Baltimore cooks make a custard out of cream, eggs, corn and coffee that is said to create enthusiasm among bon vivants.

One ladleful of soup is all the social law allows to each person at a dinner party. It was Beau Brumel who described a lout as one who was helped twice to soup.

There is now a great difference in the quality of sardines, both imported and native, and the latter are widely sold nowadays in French labeled boxes as the genuine foreign article.

In Paris recently there was another banquet of horseflesh, at which were present a number of notable people, including the Prefect of Police. As usual, the feast was declared a great success.

Sugared ginger in little square cakes is the proper and fashionable thing to serve with ice cream at dinner parties nowadays. The gastronomic idea is stated to be English, but it is no such thing.

An elastic step, buoyant spirits, and clear complexions, are among the many desirable results of pure blood. The possessor of healthy blood has his faculties at command, and enjoys a clear and quick perception, which is impossible when the blood is heavy and sluggish with impurities. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier and vitalizer known.

ANANIAS had a very bad reputation but it can be said to his credit that he never sent telegrams from Flemingsburg.

TWENTY-SEVEN hogs were counted this morning on one square. Other parts of the city, doubtless, could show up as well.

REMEMBER the matinee Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Persons living in the country will have a fine opportunity, by coming to the city, of witnessing this great play.

If matches are sold in this city at one half the former price, the public would be interested to know what enterprising merchant is doing it. He is certainly an exception to the general rule.

CUTE young women now improvise their bustles out of gossamer cloaks. In case they are caught out in the rain it takes but a minute to step into a friendly dry goods store and when they appear they wear gossamers, but the bustles are gone.

The following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

Wm. M. Reed and Lucinda Bradford.
Clifford Laypole and Ella Ross.
Thomas Barnaby and Sarah Grant.

The man who carries his dinner, goes to work at seven in the morning and quits at six in the evening, is not glad to see shadows begin to lengthen, for he is reminded that in a short time, excepting on Sunday, he will eat breakfast and sup by lamp light, and will not get a daylight view of his family until the shadows begin to wane next spring.

The examining trial of Marshal Boston, colored, charged with committing a rape upon the person of Mrs. Lucy Connors, colored, took place before Magistrate M. F. Marsh and John L. Grant, yesterday. The evidence produced was of a character to justify his being held for further trial and it was accordingly done. His bond was fixed at $500, and as he was unable to give the required security he was committed to jail.

THE BULLETIN of Thursday contains another article arraigning the city council for cowardice in submitting the hog question to the qualified voters of the city. Whilst as thoroughly opposed as is our neighbor to his porkish penurulating our streets, we would ask the direct question, whether it favors his banishment by star chamber proceedings in which the rights of the majority are to be suppressed?—Republican.

But the rights of the majority will not be suppressed for nine men out of every ten in the city are in favor of banishing the hog, if they dared to speak their true sentiments. But many of them are afraid of the man who owns a hog and there is but little hope of getting the real sense of the people on the subject, until they arrive at an appreciation of their pitiable situation, and gather courage enough to defy the hog power. Knowing that a large majority of the inhabitants of the town are disgusted with the filth and depredations of this protected animal we certainly do favor its banishment from the town by the council, who are the representatives of the people, and whose duty it is to abate this nuisance which is the most annoying that we are called on to endure. It was this same fear of the hog owner, that induced the board to submit the question to the vote of the citizens, and they must pardon us when we say that it was cowardly, for that is the truth.

The Churches.

Rev. A. Boering will preach at the M. E. Church, in Chester, to-morrow afternoon, at three o'clock.

Rev. Henry M. Scudder will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, at Washington, to-morrow.

Preaching to-morrow morning at Stone Church, and to-morrow evening at Chester, by Rev. F. S. Pollitt.

Rev. F. J. Crisp, of Carrollton, Ky., will preach at the Baptist Church to-morrow at eleven a. m. and seven p. m.

There will be preaching at the Christian Church, in Washington, by Rev. A. N. Gilbert, to-morrow afternoon at 3:15, provided it is not raining at 2:15.

There will be the usual services at the M. E. Church to-morrow by the pastor, Rev. A. Boering. Morning sermon from the parable of the "Wheat and Tares," Matthew 13.

Rev. S. B. Alderson preaches at the Presbyterian chapel to-morrow morning. In the afternoon at 2:25 o'clock he will preach at Murphysville. The evening service at the chapel will be omitted.

There will be preaching again this evening at the Presbyterian Church at 7 o'clock. Preaching and communion service to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, and also to-morrow at 7 p. m. Services conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. H. Chester.

Rev. A. N. Gilbert will preach at the Christian Church to-morrow morning at the usual hour. At night he will give the fourth lecture on "The Harmony Between Science and Revelation," the special theme being "The Origin of Animal Life." In this lecture it will be shown that there is a most remarkable correspondence between the order in which Moses presents the great division of the animal world as coming into existence, and that order as shown by science through the fossils. The public will be cordially welcomed at both services. Evening service has been changed to seven o'clock.

SYLLABUS.

Recapitulation of previous lecture—no great changes in the world's configuration since the introduction of animal life—God's call to the waters—the order of production—marine life first—the monsters of the geological ages—the wonderful age of ice—the date of man's appearance—some of the amusing blunders of scientific men in arguing thereto—the summit of the pyramid reached.

Two Meals a Day.

An exchange says: If any man or woman of forty-five or over not engaged in hard manual labor, especially the studious, sedentary and indoor livers, would take but two meals a day for one month, the second not later than three in the afternoon, and nothing absolutely afterwards, except it might be in some cases an orange or a lemon, or cup of warm drink, such as tea, broom, sugar, water or ice cream, there would be such a change for the better in the way of sound sleep, a feeling of refreshment, a feeling on waking of having rested, an appetite for breakfast, a buoyancy of disposition during the day, with geniality of temper and manner that few, except the animal and glutton, would be willing to go back to the fleshpots of Egypt. Ben Wade, one of the political lions of the west, has taken but two meals a day for twenty years, and if all sedentary persons, those who are indoors a part of the time, would, after the age of forty-three, observe the same inflexible rule, there can be no doubt, other things being equal, that long years of happy exemption from the ordinary ills of life would be the result. The reason is that the stomach would be able to perform its part more thoroughly, making purer blood, giving better sleep, securing good appetite for breakfast. Let any man try it for ten days, taking the second meal seven hours after the first, and abandon the practice if he can.

PERSONALS.

Mr. F. M. Vanden, of Covington, is in the city.

Mr. James C. Wilson, late of this city, is now in the service of J. M. Robinson & Co., of Louisville, as book-keeper. He is a young man of good business qualifications and correct habits, and we are very sure will render satisfaction in the position.

COUNTY POINTS.

WASHINGTON.

Miss Carrie Culbertson, of Maysville, is visiting Miss Birdie Adair.

Dr. Barnes and wife attended the M. E. Church Sunday.

Fannie and Lettie Wood, of Fern Leaf, visited Miss Willie Burgoyne last week.

Mrs. Fannie Hays, of Millersburg, is the guest of Miss Phoebe Marshall.

A party of young ladies will take in the Louisville Exposition this week.

SUNBEAM.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

New business arrangements at the corner of Third and Main street. Mr. Palmer will open a dry goods store in the same building, while Mr. T. F. Hill will resume the grocery business.

Rumor has it that Miss Mary Hood of "Idle Wild," was this week making her P. C. as, as next week she will assume matrimonial honors by becoming Mrs. Charles Sibbald.

We notice passing every morning a sprightly, smiling little teacher, wearing her way beyond the suburbs—her very walk indicates what vim and energy she possesses, full of zeal to teach the young idea how to shoot. Some of the young men of this town would do well to emulate her laudable energy.

Wednesday afternoon the "Squire" had a runaway couple from Cynthiana. The bride was unusually attractive, petite in form and elegantly attired in a plum color Otto-milk, and a black velvet Langtry turban, which was very becoming to her sweet oval and happy looking face. Judging from the groom's pleasant looking face he was considered a first class fellow.

A great want felt in Aberdeen is a public hall, where one might enjoy first class entertainments, such as an induction were given. We might many times have the pleasure of seeing the "Gentleman" in the medicine. Why is it that some of our enterprising business gentlemen don't enter into their spirit of such a want. It would be advantageous to the town in many ways.

Wednesday night "East Lynne" was performed to a large, fashionable and critical audience. The characters were sustained by Miss Corney, Mr. F. Levison and the steward. Lady Isabel failed to realize our ideal of the character. Considering the many disadvantages of the stage properties they did as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The gentlemen of the town gave, on Friday night, a torchlight procession in honor of Mr. Charles Gates' cousin, "Miss" King, of Georgetown, Ohio, who is a most attractive and intelligent young lady. The social was given at the Public Hall, many invitations were issued, and the evening was attended. The toilets were most elaborate. The caterer thoroughly understood his art in the sumptuousness and the arrangement of the viands. The hall was prettily decorated with autumn flowers in all their rich and varied hues, imparting a most delightful fragrance. At the hour of departure drew a large number of guests were loth to leave the festive scene.

Interesting Events From Over the Ocean.

Queer War Proceedings of Austria, Germany and Russia—Revived Activity of the Russian Nihilists—Missionary Shaw's Mamy at Last Over.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The Cabinet has discussed the case of Missionary Shaw and decided that the proposition of the French Government to pay £1,000 indemnity to him and apologize to the British Government would be a satisfactory settlement of the matter.

RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 26.—Arrests of Nihilists continue daily. Yesterday a number of students were arrested, and upon one of them was found a manifesto headed, "Executive Committee to the Czar." The document demands general amnesty for political offenders, entire freedom of the press and speech, and a Parliament elected by the people. Unless these demands are complied with the writers threaten rebellion, vengeance upon the nobility, and the death of the Czar.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, Oct. 26.—The Emperor Franz Josef has received several delegates from Austro-Hungary and the districts in the Southeast. They have represented the difficulties likely to grow out of the anti-Semetic contest, and have advocated a peaceful solution of such local differences as exist between Austria, Bulgaria and Roumania. The Government is inclined more toward peace than are the Provinces, but the feeling on the eastern borders may lead to an outbreak and several measures have been decided upon to strengthen the Home Government and place Austria in a position to meet a war. Such measures as are proposed are considered of importance enough to demand an increase of the ordinary war budget.

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—The German officials confirm the reports that the Cossacks are congregating at the German frontier threatening towns and villages on the border. Large drafts of cavalry are being sent to protect the frontier.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—The Duke of Edinburgh and Prince Weninger consulted with the Emperor yesterday in reference to the rupture between the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and the Duke of Edinburgh, caused by the latter's refusal to be present at a ball given by the former unless certain persons were excluded. The Emperor promised to act as mediator and will eradicate any ill feeling which may exist between the two.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER." Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was at ways kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, MRS. EMMA GENEY." 159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE." Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN." Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRADGON." Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
